

CHEC Student Banquet Dress Code 2022

The CHEC Banquet is a formal event and requires ladies and gentlemen to dress in modest, formal/semi-formal attire. We have some guidelines to help you choose your attire wisely and appropriately so that you may enjoy your evening.

Ladies

Acceptable Attire

- Long gowns
- The minimum length for dresses is three inches above the top of the knee. See-through fabric will not be considered in determining the length of the gown.
- Spaghetti straps and strapless gowns that are modest and concealing.
- Formal jumpsuit

Unacceptable Attire

- Plunging necklines (rule of thumb: if you can bend over without needing to cover yourself with your hand, your neckline is appropriate)
- Plunging cutouts (no more than two inches below the natural bra line)
- Slits more than three inches above the top of the knee
- See through gowns
- Jeans, pants, trousers
- Visible tattoos or body piercings
- Menswear
- Midriff baring

Gentlemen

Acceptable Attire

- Tuxedos, dress suits, formal military uniforms
- Neckties, bowties, bolo ties
- Collared, button up shirts
- Dress shoes or dress boots

Unacceptable Attire

- T-shirts
- Jeans of any color or style
- Visible tattoos or body piercings
